

Date: 25 May 1982

TO: DCI

FROM: Herb Meyer/Bob Gates

SUBJECT:

REMARKS:

This analysis of a hypothetical Soviet decision to shift resources from military production to civilian end use is about as far as we can go short of a major SOVA research effort. The statistical projections in this paper are preliminary, and we should be careful not to use them outside this building without further refinement. Indeed, we should be careful not to inadvertently create the impression that CIA is predicting any such resource shift.

A
C
T
I
O
N